now available for short term parking for visitors to Olde Gahanna businesses and attractions. Additional temporary public parking is an important part of the City's efforts to address parking needs of Olde Gahanna businesses and attractions during the revitalization process.

GAHANNA – The City of Gahanna and the Gahanna Community Improvement Corporation (CIC) officially announce the completion of a major step toward Olde Gahanna Revitalization: the relocation of the US Postal Service Distribution Facility off of Mill Street and the Creekside Area. Effective immediately, the entire parking lot is

As part of the long-term Creekside redevelopment strategy for Olde Gahanna, the City of Gahanna originally purchased the site in 1998. After seven years, the US Postal Service's lease has now expired and the distribution facility has been relocated. For your convenience, relocated drop-off boxes are accessible at Hunter's Ridge Shopping Center (main entrance drive between KFC & Taco Bell) and Rocky Fork Plaza (next to US Bank). Please contact the Gahanna Branch of the US Postal Service for more details at 614-471-9174 or in person at 246 Lincoln Circle Suite E.

The Creekside Redevelopment Project is the latest step in Gahanna's redevelopment strategy for its rapidly redeveloping historic core area. Recently adopted design guidelines for the area call for careful, creative development that continues to connect this suburban downtown to its beautiful natural amenity: Big Walnut Creek. Creekside Park currently includes a boardwalk, and waterfall along Big Walnut Creek. The Creekside area has already attracted several million dollars in improvements and investments in Olde Gahanna.
